

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to pre-empt regularly scheduled programming and force its affiliates to broadcast political propaganda disguised as news days before the presidential election. This is a clear abuse of the public airwaves to influence the outcome of an election and a violation of Sinclair's license commitment to serve the public interest.